TOP 10 Free attractions to do in Fox Glacier

1 Fox Glacier Valley Walk – The walk to the terminal face of the Fox Glacier ends with spectacular views of the Glacier and its steep ice falls. 10 min drive from park. Walk duration: Glacier terminal face is 2600m, 2 hours return. Fitness: Gentle. Can also be cycled. (Outfoxing Guidebook available).

2 Lake Matheson Walk – Famous for its beautiful reflections of N.Z.'s highest Mountains, Lake Matheson was recently voted "one of the World's TOP 10 Lakes". Distance: 5 min drive. Duration 40 min return to jetty, or 1hr 30 min for the loop track around the lake. Fitness: Easy to moderate. (Outfoxing Guidebooks available).

3 Gillespie's Beach – A true wilderness beach with views of the Southern Alps and stunning sunsets which turns the ocean to gold and mountains to delicate pinks. Distance: 30 min drive. (Outfoxing Guidebooks available).

4 Minnehaha Glow Worm Walk – A gentle walk through charming, moss clad rainforest, which at night comes alive with the magic of glow-worms' glittering in the forest grottos! Distance: 2 min drive or 10 min walk. Duration: Allow 20–40 min. Fitness: Easy. (Outfoxing Guidebook available).

5 Copland Track – A challenging 7 hr tramp to the DOC hut through alpine landscapes. The reward at the end is the geothermal hot pool at Welcome Flat! Shuttle can be arranged from holiday Park. Distance: 20 mins away. Duration: 2 day return. Fitness: Good fitness required. Planning: check with DOC.

6 Mountain Viewpoint – A short drive down the road from our holiday park is the Mountain Viewpoint, a nice picnic spot from which you get great views of the Southern Alps, including our highest mountain peak Mt. Cook/Aoraki. A nifty little viewing device allows you to line up and name all the main peaks, and read their exact heights. Distance: 5 min drive.

7 Lake Gault which starts from Lake Matheson – Beginning from the Lake Matheson carpark, follow the Lake Matheson /Te Ara Kairaumati walk in an anti-clockwise direction before branching off to Lake Gault. The track gradually climbs 200 m through original podocarp forest with several small stream crossings. 8 km return via same track with access off Lake Matheson walk. Easy 3 hr return.

8 Mt. Fox Walk – A steep 3–4 hour climb to a 1345m peak with breath-taking views of the Southern Alps. Check DOC website and leave detailed intentions at reception. Distance: 5 min drive away. Duration: Allow 8 hours return. Fitness: For experience trampers.
