TOP 10 Free attractions to do in Fox Glacier

- Fox Glacier Southside Walkway/Cycleway – Walk through the glacier valley of the Fox Glacier to a viewpoint of the Fox Glacier terminal face. The walk features rainforest and gentle climbs up glacier moraines. Return the same way.
- Lake Matheson Walk – Famous for its beautiful reflections of N.Z.'s highest Mountains, Lake Matheson was recently voted "one of the World's TOP 10 Lakes". Distance: 5 min drive. Duration 40 min return to jetty, or 1 hr 30 min for the loop track around the lake. Fitness: Easy to moderate. (Outfoxing Guidebooks available).
- Gillespie's Beach – A true wilderness beach with views of the Southern Alps and stunning sunsets which turns the ocean to gold and mountains to delicate pinks. Distance: 30 min drive. (Outfoxing Guidebooks available).

- Minnehaha Glow Worm Walk – A gentle walk through charming, moss clad rainforest, which at night comes alive with the magic of glow-worms' glittering in the forest grottos! Distance: 2 min drive or 10 min walk. Duration: Allow 20–40 min. Fitness: Easy. (Outfoxing Guidebook available).
- Copland Track – A challenging 7 hr tramp to the DOC hut through alpine landscapes. The reward at the end is the geothermal hot pool at Welcome Flat! Shuttle can be arranged from holiday Park. Distance: 20 mins away. Duration: 2 day return. Fitness: Good fitness required. Planning: check with DOC.
- Fox Glacier Viewpoint / Te Kopikopiko o te Waka – Kopikopiko o te Waka translates as 'the capsized canoe' and is a treasured Ngāi Tahu creation story. Panoramic views of The Southern Alps and a great vantage for Fox Glacier, Te Kopikopiko o te Waka is a Tohu Whenua site that tells the Ngāi Tahu story of creation.

Previously known as Peak View and redeveloped as a Tohu Whenua cultural heritage site in 2022, Te Kopikopiko o te Waka was conceived, designed and carved by Ngati Mahaki in partnership with the Department of Conservation and the Fox Glacier community.

- Lake Gault which starts from Lake Matheson – Beginning from the Lake Matheson carpark, follow the Lake Matheson /Te Ara Kairaumati walk in an anti-clockwise direction before branching off to Lake Gault. The track gradually climbs 200 m through original podocarp forest with several small stream crossings. 8 km return via same track with access off Lake Matheson walk. Easy 3 hr return.
- Mt. Fox Walk – A steep 3–4 hour climb to a 1345m peak with breath-taking views of the Southern Alps. Check DOC website and leave detailed intentions at reception. Distance: 5 min drive away. Duration: Allow 8 hours return. Fitness: For experience trampers.
